

CONTRIBUTORS

DANNY JACOBS has an MA in Creative Writing from the University of New Brunswick. He will be graduating with his MLIS in 2011.

KATRINE WILKINSON decided to become a librarian while completing her undergraduate degree in Sociology and Social Anthropology from Dalhousie University. She will be graduating with her MLIS in the spring of 2011.

LINDA MCAFEE has a BA (Honours) in English from Mount Saint Vincent University, and an MA in English from Acadia University. With all fingers and toes crossed, she will be graduating from Dalhousie with her MLIS in the spring of 2011.

VANESSA BLACK has a BA(Honours) in History from Atlantic Baptist University. She will be graduating with her MLIS from Dalhousie University in 2011 and is soon to be a Children's Librarian in the backwoods of New Brunswick!

