IN MEMORIAM

The Department of Music sadly announces to the Dalhousie community the passing of Paul Martell. Paul died suddenly on August 7, 2009, in Halifax, at the age of 49. He drowned in Kearney Lake. An obituary appeared in the Chronicle Herald on Thursday, August 13th, 2009.

Growing up in Dartmouth, Paul David Martell attended Prince Andrew High School. He then pursued studies at Mount Allison University, University of Calgary and University of Chicago. Paul was a part-time academic in the Dalhousie Music Department for much of the last ten years, teaching classes in music history, theory, and lute. He was also a part of the print music department at Musicstop (Long & McQuade).

He is survived by daughter, Emma Martell, Evanston, Ill.; sister, Mary Ann Martell; brother, Sandy Martell, Middleton; niece, Rosalynn and special friend Yvonne Harpell. His parents were Gerard and Patricia (O'Brien) Martell.

A memorial service will be held 11 a.m. on Saturday, August 15, in A. L. Mattatall Funeral Home, 217 Portland St., Dartmouth. A burial in Noel Cemetery will follow at 3 p.m. He has been cremated.
